Golf Itinerary

Causeway Coast & Glens

Royal Portrush Golf Club, Co. Antrim

Golf along the Causeway Coastal Route

In geographic terms, Northern Ireland is not a huge country, but when it comes to golf, make no mistake: it's a giant, with over 90 clubs – and with champions like Rory McIlroy, Darren Clarke and Graeme McDowell to prove it. Northern Ireland has the perfect mix of Links and Parkland golf courses. Host to the 148th Open which is due to make a triumphant return to Royal Portrush Golf Club in 2025, City of Derry Airport is perfectly located as a gateway to the area.

Roe Park Golf Club, Co.Londonderry

Roe Park Resort Golf Club

The 18-hole parkland layout takes full advantage of its beautiful setting with Lough Foyle and the Inishowen Peninsula providing a dramatic backdrop. Popular with amateurs and seasoned players, the course is both challenging and enjoyable.

40 Drumrane Road, Limavady,
Co. Londonderry, BT49 9FB
T: +44 (0) 28 777 22222
W: roeparkresort.com/

Castlerock Golf Club

This Golf Club situated in the seaside resort of Castlerock, which lies approximately 5 miles west of the town of Coleraine on the North Coast of Northern Ireland. Castlerock is a fabulous links course set among rolling sand dunes. Its scenic qualities embrace the River Bann flowing out to the Atlantic, eye-catching views of Donegal and on a clear day towards Scotland and the Isle of Islay. An ideal retreat in which to play golf.

65 Circular Road, Castlerock,
Co. Londonderry, BT51 4TJ
T: +44 (0) 28 708 48314
W: castlerockgc.co.uk

Castlerock Golf Club, Co. Londonderry

Portstewart Golf Club, Co. Londonderry

Portstewart Golf Club

Situated on Northern Ireland's magnificent Causeway Coast, Portstewart Golf Club presents a difficult but fair game. The Strand Course is indisputably the jewel in Portstewart's crown for both quality of game and scenery and has recently played host to the Irish Open.

117 Strand Road, Portstewart,
Co. Londonderry, BT55 7PG
T: +44 (0) 28 7083 2015
W: portstewartgc.co.uk

Gracehill Golf Course, Co. Antrim

Gracehill Golf Course

Gracehill Golf Course is a pristine 18-hole golf course within the Dark Hedges Estate. Surrounded by ancient woodland and dotted with a variety of lakes and ponds, this American-style course was designed by Frank Ainsworth.

141 Ballinlea Road, Stranocum,
Co. Antrim, BT53 8PX
T: +44 (0) 28 20751209
W: openfairways.com/golf-courses/Gracehill

Royal Portrush Golf Club

Voted Number 8 in the World's 100 Greatest Golf Courses, Golf Digest (2019 & 2020). Founded in 1888, the legendary Royal Portrush Golf Club has two Championship Courses – the renowned Dunluce Course and the smaller, but equally enjoyable, Valley Course. The former is one of the courses on the rota of the Open Championship, having hosted the tournament in 2019, and is due to host the tournament again in 2025. Both courses command impressive views across the North Atlantic with breath-taking views of Scotland and Donegal but the golf is even more spectacular.

Dunluce Road, Portrush,
Co. Antrim, BT56 8JQ
T: +44 (0) 28 70822311
W: royalportrushgolfclub.com

Galgorm Castle Golf Club

Galgorm Castle Golf Club, home to the ISPS Handa World Invitational, is an exciting mixture of old and new. This 18-hole, 6930 yards par 72 championship course is set in 220 acres of beautiful, mature parkland located in the heart of County Antrim and has recently played host to the Irish Open.

200 Galgorm Road,
Co. Antrim, BT42 1HL
T: +44 (0) 28 2564 6161
W: galgormcastle.com

Ballycastle Golf Club

Offers a full 18 hole, part links, part parkland, championship course open to members and visitors all year round. The first five holes of the course are on diverse parkland along the banks of the Margy and Carey Rivers and bordering the ruins of the 12th century Bonamargy Friary. The rest of the course runs alongside the beach before rising to the "top holes" with panoramic views including the Mull of Kintyre, Rathlin Island and Ballycastle Bay.

2 Cushendall Road, Ballycastle,
Co. Antrim
BT54 6QP
T: +44 (0) 28 2076 2536
W: ballycastlegolfclub.com

Ballycastle Golf Club, Co. Antrim

Cairn Dhu Golf Club

Cairn Dhu Golf Club is a superb 18-hole parkland course designed by J.F.S. Morrison, partner in the firm of Colt, Allison and Morrison, and is chosen for its unique site in over 200 acres of mature woodlands and rolling hills.

192 Coast Road, Ballygally, Larne,
Co. Antrim, BT40 2QG
T: +44 (0) 28 2858 3324
W: cairndhugolfclub.co.uk

Whitehead Golf Club

The club boasts a challenging but fair 18-hole course suitable for experienced and novice golfers alike. The top nine holes tend to play more 'links' type golf while the bottom nine holes are more 'parkland', offering the best of both worlds. The course is known among golfers in Ireland as 'a hidden gem' on the beautiful Antrim coast.

McCrae's Brae, Whitehead,
Co. Antrim, BT38 9NZT
T: +44 (0) 28 9337 0820
W: whiteheadgolfclub.com

Galgorm Castle Golf Club, Co. Antrim

Hospitality

For fun off the course, Northern Ireland has excellent facilities to enjoy that well-deserved relaxing time at the 19th hole. These Golf Clubhouses, wherever you go, are the perfect way to end your golfing day. Indulge in an excellent meal and sample the local tipples, like a smooth single malt or a refreshing pint of Guinness. The Causeway Coast and Glens' chefs use the finest local ingredients, just for you! Choose your setting – will it be fine dining, a contemporary bistro, a coastal café or a traditional pub?

For a variety of food and drink options, please visit:
W: visitcausewaycoastandglens.com/food-and-drink/places-to-eat

And after an energetic day on the green and enjoying some sightseeing, get some well-earned rest by choosing from the vast range of accommodation available in the Causeway Coast and Glens. From large to small, boutique to traditional, with spectacular coastal views to rural retreats you'll be spoilt for choice for places to stay.

For a wide range of accommodation options, visit:
W: visitcausewaycoastandglens.com/accommodation